INDIANS ON WAR-PATH

WEALTHY MEXICAN CITIZEN WAS AMBUSHED AND KILLED

MILITARY AFTER THE BAND

Which Are Murdering and Robbing Wealthy Men Who Fall In Their Way

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 13.—Special to the Express from Guaymas, Mexico, says: Jesus Brocameto and Ricardo Robtes, members of two of the wealthiest families in this section, were ambushed late yesterday by a band of twelve Yaqui Indians, Brocameto being killed outright and his companion fatally wounded. The attack occurred in the vicinity of the La Colorado mining camp.

The Indians escaped after robbing their victims. The killing has aroused the indignation of the better element of this district and the military has responded by sending out a large detachment of soldiers on the trail of the Indians.

SHE RISES TO REMARK

Does Aunt Hetty Green Concerning a Few Live Issues.

New York, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Hetty Green, often referred to as the richest woman in the world, is strongly opposed to international marriages, according to an interview with her, which is published today.

"I am glad Gladys Vanderbilt is not my daughter," she is quoted as saying. "There are thousands of honest young working men in the United States good enough to be any girl's husband. The girls who go to Europe to get their husbands deserve what they get—and more. If my son married a foreign woman because the union would bring him a title, I would disown him."

Mrs. Green said she had no intention of retiring from business. "When I get out of business," she said, "my work in this world shall have been done. I have been busy forty-two years, and work has made me young and happy."

Of the financial outlook Mrs. Green had this to say: "We safely passed the period when there was danger of panic. Money may be tight again about the first of the year, but I do not look for serious business embarrassment."

A Disastrous Explosion.

Macon, Oct. 12.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning freight train No. 35, on the Central Railway, bound for Columbus, met with a terrible accident in front of the depot at Reynolds, when the boiler of engine No. 1065 was blown to atoms and Engineer C. S. Avera and Conductor C. L. Allen were killed outright and colored Fireman George Howard was fatally injured, dying later. Brake-man Ellis Perry, colored, was slightly injured.

The force of the explosion was so terrific that portions of the depot were blown away and the freight platform was damaged. Deep holes were torn in the railway embankment near where the engine stood when the accident occurred.

The men who were killed were in the cab at the time. The fireman was busy with the taking of water on the tender. The two white men were hurled into eternity in a moment, and consternation was created in the town.

IT IS GETTING SERIOUS.

So Few Southern Whites Seek Civil Service Positions.

Washington, Oct. 12.—That so few white men in the South are seeking civil service positions is now a matter of deep concern to the officials of the Postoffice Department. A recent examination for positions in the railway mail service was held in various points in the South, and seven-eighths of the applicants were negroes.

The Postoffice Department officials are perplexed. They say that the reason white men are not taking the examinations is that so many negroes are serving in the railway mail service. In one Southern city all of the applicants were negroes. Postoffice officials declined to give the name of this city.

They look upon the whole situation as grave, and it is very evident that this particular examination is looked upon with considerable concern, so much so that they are extremely cautious about talking on the subject.

RATTLESNAKES IN BROOKLYN.

Policeman's Life Is Saved by Toughness of Buckskin Glove.

New York, Oct. 10.—Mounted Patrolman Louis A. Brown had a narrow escape from being stung to death by a rattlesnake, in the Flatbush residence section of Brooklyn. A buckskin glove saved his life. Where the rattler came from is what is puzzling the residents. There are many vacant lots in that vicinity, and in one of them, children were playing when Patrolman Brown, on horseback, came along.

When he heard the children crying that there was a snake in the grass, he rode at full speed to the lots. His horse, which has been trained to obey every command, perfectly still as the patrolman jumped off and made a rush for the tall weeds.

Then he heard a warning rattle and the snake struck at him, burying its fangs in the thumb of the tough buckskin glove on his left hand. There it hung for a moment,

Criminal Court Convenes.

The October term of the Criminal Court of Record for Suwannee county met in regular session this morning at nine o'clock by Judge Carter. The docket for this term is an unusually heavy one, forty-nine cases appearing on it. Some of these were continued cases from last term, and others were arraigned and plead guilty before the regular sitting of the court. The actual number of cases to be tried at this term will sum up about thirty-five, most of which will be disposed of if the record of the court is kept up to what it has been in the past.

The jury was drawn and the venire made returnable for this afternoon at one thirty. Judge Carter sounded the docket and the following were arraigned: Cap Wilson, charged of larceny, plead not guilty; Ed. Lane, illegal sale of liquor, plead not guilty; Andrew Jordan, larceny, plead not guilty; and Lonnie Taylor plead the same to a charge of assault and battery. The officers seem to be determined to put the blind tigers out of business. The following are up for trial on the charge of selling liquor without license: Bulley Pinkney, Joan Jordan, Jas Neal, J. J. Kinsman, E. H. Hammock, Charlie Boser, Ed Lane and Walter Pert.

Abe Wheeler, Rebecca Bailey, L. Hays, Scott Stewart, Walter Wallace, Lonnie Taylor, Sylvester Thomas, Sallie Williams, Leon and Lawson and John Foster are the aggregation who will answer to various assault charges, ranging in degree from aggravated assault to assault with intent to commit murder.

Other minor cases will be up for attention but are expected to occupy only a short time for trial.

The Suwannee Criminal Court has a reputation already for dispensing justice without any needless delays, until Brown seized it with his right hand just back of the head, and tore it free.

He held the snake until one of the children got an empty milk bottle, and into this his captive was shoved head first, and imprisoned.

TAMPA DIVINE HEALER.

Judge Farr, of that City, Possesses Remarkable Powers.
(Bradentown Journal.)

During the visit here last week of Judge O. S. Farr, of Tampa, The Herald scribe had the pleasure of meeting and conversing with him. He is a lawyer by profession and does not practice healing as a business, but solely to relieve suffering and not with a view of making money. He has effected many wonderful cures some of which were reported in the Tampa papers. Having read these reports, the scribe was moved to ask the judge about his powers, which seemed miraculous.

Judge Farr, who, by the by, is seventy-three years of age, stated that he had possessed since boyhood the gift of healing by laying on of hands. He is unable to explain it, but says that he regards it as a divine gift bestowed upon him to enable him to relieve suffering; and viewing it in that light, he feels that he should make no charge for the cures that he effects. The benevolence that beams from his countenance evinces sincerity.

While here, he cured one lady of rheumatism and another of both rheumatism and deafness. He has effected many cures of rheumatism and neuralgia simply by laying his hands on the affected parts. Asked as to whether these cures were permanent, he said that they were, that the trouble never returns. In a modest manner he related several instances of cures he had performed by way of illustrating certain of their features.

SMALL SAYS STRIKE OFF

GENERAL COUNCIL OUT OF FUNDS AND GIVES UP

HE IS DECLARED SUSPENDED

Local Unions Vote to Continue the Fight and Declare Small's
Office Vacant

New York, Oct. 13.—President S. J. Small appeared confident today that the strike was at an end and hopeful that his men would be re-instated. "The strike will be called off tomorrow, and the men will be back to work," he said.

"Will you give a word of advice to the men as to whether they should vote to call it off and seek re-instatement?" he was asked.

"I will cover that point at the meeting today with the men in New York," he replied.

"The object in sending out my statement to the men yesterday was to put the question right up to them. Our resources are exhausted, and if they want to continue the fight they will have to furnish the funds."

"What if the locals decline to call it off?" he was asked.

"Well, there will be nothing to do but keep up the fight as long as they can, but it will be up to them to provide funds. The strike was irregular from the beginning."

Strike Hopeless.

"Then the strike is hopeless and it might as well be abandoned?"

"That is it," replied Mr. Small.

President Small Suspended.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The following message was sent to President Small by the executive committee last night. Under article 15, section 7 of the constitution of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, you are hereby suspended from the office of president, to take effect immediately."

NEW PHASE OF QUESTION.

Mississippi Town Wants Separate Schools for Italians.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Oct. 12.—A resolution calling for separate schools for Italians, Syrians and Russian Jewish children in Hattiesburg was adopted today by the local Board of Education. It will be presented to the City Council next week in an effort to obtain funds for erecting separate school buildings.

Recent race antagonism in this vicinity, especially against Italians, is the cause for the resolution.

Patti's in the palmy days of the famous diva, but a well known millionaire lover of music believed that she should have European study. The announcement was made that he had taken her under his wing and would give her a musical education abroad.

Christine's family was perfectly willing that she should take advantage of the generous offer of her patron.

But she said "No," and said it emphatically.

"If I have the kind of voice I believe I have, I do not need a training in Europe, at least just now. I can sing here and earn a livelihood and then when I find that my technique is deficient I can on my own money, go across the Atlantic to the great schools of music and study on my own account. I don't want any love-sick millionaires hanging to my skirts and I simply won't have them."
